The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven,
Hallowed be Your name.
Your kingdom come.
Your will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
As we forgive our debtors.
And do not lead us into temptation,
But deliver us from the evil one.
For Yours is the kingdom and the power
and the glory forever.
Amen.

NOTES FOR ORGANISTS

GENERAL

- Every hymn has been provided with an introduction and postlude.
- Some hymns have optional accompaniments which include interludes and optional verse settings. These versions should be rehearsed with the congregation before being used.
- Some accompaniments from the congregation hymnal have been simplified in the organist hymnal.
- Where the melody is absent in certain accompaniments of the congregation hymnal, it has been added for the organist hymnal.
- For ease of reading, only the first verse of each hymn appears in full text. For the rest of the verses, the opening and closing lines are shown at the end of the music score. Where a hymn has a refrain, the closing line of the verse is given, and not the closing line of the refrain.
- The keys of certain hymns have been changed to facilitate varying levels of skill among organists.

INTRODUCTIONS

- When marked as "Introduction", the introduction is only played before the first verse.
- When marked as "Introduction to be played before each verse", the introduction is repeated before each verse.

POSTLUDES

- Postludes are played only after the last verse has been sung, or when the officiating minister ends the hymn.
- In hymns with the indication "Postlude: To be played while the congregation sings the last note", the organist should go straight into the postlude and decrescendo towards a soft ending.
- Where accompaniments have loud endings, the decrescendos in the postludes should be observed when preceding a prayer.

OPTIONAL ACCOMPANIMENTS

- Where "Optional accompaniment" is indicated, the organist could play the vocal parts instead, if the accompaniment is too difficult.
- Some of the optional accompaniments have interludes between verses; these should only be played as part of the optional accompaniment, i.e. interludes should not be played if the organist is only playing the vocal parts.
- The organist could alternate between the optional accompaniment and the vocal parts to provide variation between verses. In such cases, interludes should be played if they appear in the accompaniment.

Jack W Hayford (b. 1934)

♩ = 98

Introduction

The introduction consists of two staves in 4/4 time. The treble staff begins with a half note G4, followed by a half note A4, then a half note Bb4. The bass staff begins with a half note G3, followed by a half note A3, then a half note Bb3. The melody continues with eighth and quarter notes, ending with a half note G4.

Fa - ther God, I give all thanks and praise to Thee; — Fa - ther God, my hands I hum - bly raise to Thee, —

The first line of the hymn is written in 4/4 time. The treble staff contains the melody with lyrics underneath. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

— for Thy might - y pow'r and love a - maze me, a - maze me; and I stand in awe and wor-ship, Fa-ther God. —

The second line of the hymn continues the melody and accompaniment. It includes a key signature change to one flat (Bb) in the treble staff for the final phrase.

Postlude

The postlude consists of two staves in 4/4 time. The treble staff features a melody of quarter and half notes. The bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment with chords.

9 God is in our presence

Gerhard Tersteegen (1697-1769)

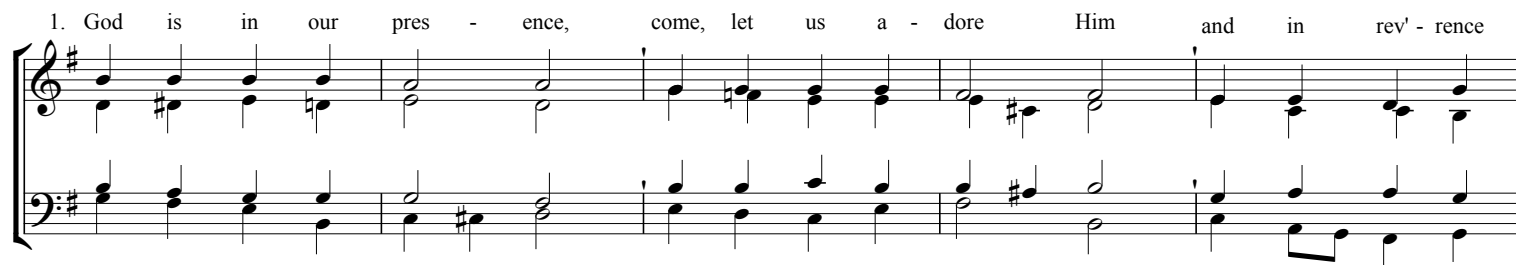

Joachim Neander (1650-1680)

$\text{♩} = 72$

Introduction

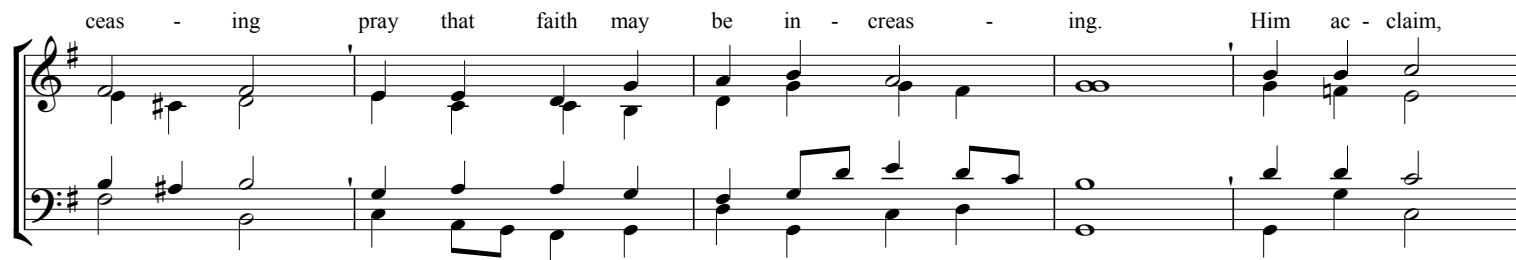

1. God is in our pres - ence, come, let us a - dore Him and in rev' - rence bow be - fore Him! God is here a - mong us, let us with - out ceas - ing pray that faith may be in - creas - ing. Him ac - claim, hearts a - flame and in meek - ness ten - der to His will sur - ren - der.

The first system of music consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The key signature is one sharp (F#), indicating G major. The vocal line is written on a treble clef staff and includes the lyrics: "hearts a - flame and in meek - ness ten - der to His will sur - ren - der." The piano accompaniment is written on a bass clef staff and provides harmonic support for the vocal melody.

2. Thou art all-pervading; / reborn life emerging.
3. Make us truly humble, / Thee alone adoring.
4. Lord, make us Thy dwelling, / blessing find unfolding.

Postlude

The second system of music is a postlude, consisting of a piano accompaniment. The key signature remains one sharp (F#), indicating G major. The word "Postlude" is written above the first staff. The piano accompaniment is written on a bass clef staff and provides a concluding harmonic structure for the piece.

18 I sing the mighty power of God

Isaac Watts (1674-1748)

Melody from Mainz Gesangbuch, 1833

$\text{♩} = 108$

Introduction

1. I sing the might - y pow'r of God that made the moun - tains rise, that spread the flow - ing seas a - broad, and built the loft - y skies. I sing the wis - dom that or - dained the sun to rule the day; the moon shines full at His com - mand and all the stars o - bey.

The musical score is written for piano in 4/4 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It begins with an introduction of four measures. The first system of the main text contains two lines of music with lyrics. The second system also contains two lines of music with lyrics. The third system contains two lines of music with lyrics. The music is composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some rests and accidentals. The piano accompaniment is simple, using chords and single notes to support the melody.

2. I sing the goodness of the Lord / or gaze upon the sky!
3. There's not a plant or flow'r below / Thou, God, art present there.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It begins with a tempo marking of quarter note = 70. The key signature has one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 4/4. The introduction consists of a piano accompaniment of four measures. The first vocal line starts with '1. In a world where people walk in' and continues with 'dark - ness, — let us turn our faces to the light, to the light of God re - vealed in'. The piano accompaniment for this section features a steady eighth-note bass line and a more active treble line with chords and moving lines. The second vocal line begins the refrain: 'Je - sus, to the day - star scat - ter - ing our night. For the light is strong - er than the'. The piano accompaniment continues with a similar rhythmic pattern, supporting the vocal melody. The score is presented in three systems, each with a vocal staff and a piano grand staff.

1. Soft - ly and ten - der - ly Je - sus is call - ing, call - ing for you and for me.

See, at the por - tals He's wait - ing and watch - ing, watch - ing for you and for me. Come home, come home, all who are wea - ry, come home.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. The introduction is an 8-measure piece in 6/8 time, featuring a gentle piano accompaniment. The first line of the song is a vocal melody with the lyrics '1. Soft - ly and ten - der - ly Je - sus is call - ing, call - ing for you and for me.' The piano accompaniment consists of a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The second line of the song continues the melody with the lyrics 'See, at the por - tals He's wait - ing and watch - ing, watch - ing for you and for me. Come'. The piano accompaniment remains consistent. The third line is the refrain, starting with 'home, come home, all who are wea - ry, come home.' The melody is more melodic and features some grace notes. The piano accompaniment also changes slightly to support the refrain.

Ear - nest - ly, ten - der - ly, Je - sus is call - ing, call - ing, O sin - ner, come home!

2. Why should we tarry when / mercy for you and for me?

Hands let's be joining	588
Hark! Jesus calls	282
Hark! The gospel bells are ringing	283
Hark! The herald angels sing	544
Hark! Who's knocking?	284
Hark, my soul, it is the Lord	367
Have Thine own way, Lord	243
Have you any room for Jesus?	285
Have you heard the Master calling?	131
He gave His life	491
He is exalted	13
He never said a mumbalin' word	492
Hear the watchmen in Zion	132
Hearken! A narrow way	286
Heart with heart in love united	368
Heavenward still our path ascends	81
Help us to help each other	369
Here I am, Lord	133
Here is Jesus, here is mercy	316

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven,
Hallowed be Your name.
Your kingdom come.
Your will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
As we forgive our debtors.
And do not lead us into temptation,
But deliver us from the evil one.
For Yours is the kingdom and the power
and the glory forever.
Amen.

NOTES FOR ORGANISTS

GENERAL

- Every hymn has been provided with an introduction and postlude.
- Some hymns have optional accompaniments which include interludes and optional verse settings. These versions should be rehearsed with the congregation before being used.
- Some accompaniments from the congregation hymnal have been simplified in the organist hymnal.
- Where the melody is absent in certain accompaniments of the congregation hymnal, it has been added for the organist hymnal.
- For ease of reading, only the first verse of each hymn appears in full text. For the rest of the verses, the opening and closing lines are shown at the end of the music score. Where a hymn has a refrain, the closing line of the verse is given, and not the closing line of the refrain.
- The keys of certain hymns have been changed to facilitate varying levels of skill among organists.

INTRODUCTIONS

- When marked as "Introduction", the introduction is only played before the first verse.
- When marked as "Introduction to be played before each verse", the introduction is repeated before each verse.

POSTLUDES

- Postludes are played only after the last verse has been sung, or when the officiating minister ends the hymn.
- In hymns with the indication "Postlude: To be played while the congregation sings the last note", the organist should go straight into the postlude and decrescendo towards a soft ending.
- Where accompaniments have loud endings, the decrescendos in the postludes should be observed when preceding a prayer.

OPTIONAL ACCOMPANIMENTS

- Where "Optional accompaniment" is indicated, the organist could play the vocal parts instead, if the accompaniment is too difficult.
- Some of the optional accompaniments have interludes between verses; these should only be played as part of the optional accompaniment, i.e. interludes should not be played if the organist is only playing the vocal parts.
- The organist could alternate between the optional accompaniment and the vocal parts to provide variation between verses. In such cases, interludes should be played if they appear in the accompaniment.

The first system of the hymn consists of two lines of music, each with a vocal line and a lute accompaniment. The lyrics are: '1. O sa - cred Head, now wound - ed, with grief and shame weighed down, now scorn - ful - ly sur - round - ed with thorns, Thine on - ly crown! O sa - cred Head, what splen - dour, what bliss till now was Thine! Yet,'. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a final cadence on a whole note in the key of G major.

1. O sa - cred Head, now wound - ed, with grief and shame weighed down, now scorn - ful - ly sur - round - ed with thorns, Thine on - ly crown! O sa - cred Head, what splen - dour, what bliss till now was Thine! Yet, though de - spised, I ren - der Thy praise and call Thee mine.

2. What Thou, my Lord, / vouchsafe to me Thy grace.
3. What language shall / outlive my love to Thee.
4. Be near when I / die safely, through Thy love.

Hail to the Lord's anointed	525
Hallelujah! Fairest morning	12
Hallelujah! Resurrected	511
Hands let's be joining	588
Hark! Jesus calls	282
Hark! The gospel bells are ringing	283
Hark! The herald angels sing	544
Hark! Who's knocking?	284
Hark, my soul, it is the Lord	367
Have Thine own way, Lord	243
Have you any room for Jesus?	285
Have you heard the Master calling?	131
He gave His life	491
He is exalted	13
He never said a mumbalin' word	492
Hear the watchmen in Zion	132
Hearken! A narrow way	286
Heart with heart in love united	368
Heavenward still our path ascends	81
Help us to help each other	369
Here I am, Lord	133
Here is Jesus, here is mercy	316
Here is my heart	244
Hiding in Thee	183
His love	370
Hold the fort	184
Holy Ghost of truth and power	465
Holy Spirit	466
